Minister's Meditation

The Rev. Jennie Barrington, Interim Minister

"What am I searching for? Maybe it's the beliefs I had as a child, that the world is a nice place, that people are genuinely who they say they are, that life is not simply what it is, where the sun shines and the stars glitter for me. Where am I going? I do not know, but maybe I am just searching for those beliefs that lead to a happy ending..." (Virginia Alison)

Dear Members and Friends,

Last night I had a "mock interview" with your Search Committee. What a real pleasure that was! They have the perfect blend of seriousness, personability, confidence, flexibility, and charm. I continue to feel high confidence that they will be successful in UUCC's search for a new settled minister. They have surveyed our congregation and staff; analyzed that feedback as regards what type of minister will best match what you want and need; embellished that information with a beautiful "electronic packet" of detailed information about our congregation, city, and area; and done preliminary interviews. Our congregation, and the materials the Search Committee put together about it, are very appealing. Thirteen UU ministers expressed interest in us. Your Search Committee is now in the process of scheduling the "pre-candidating weekends," which will take place at neutral pulpit sites, in the coming weeks. Our "mock interview" was good practice for the in-depth interviews that are part of those weekends. Your Search Committee is being very thorough, and appropriately so.

They are searching for the person who will be a happy success for this congregation, in this place, in these contemporary times-- what is generally called a sole parish ministry position. It's a really big job. And it is a different, more complex, job than it was a couple decades ago. More knowledge is needed now of UU Religious Education for children and youth, conflict management, anti-racism and multi-cultural awareness, advocating for the rights of LGBTQ people, safe congregations policies and practices, building renovation projects, pastoral care that involves a wider variety of conditions and ailments, supervising staff, contemporary worship elements such as power points, and even fluency with social media and twitter. Your diligent search committee is aware of UUCC's need for all of these aspects of professional ministry. And they are realistic about the fact that we never find everything we want in any one person. But they are holding to a high standard, with the goal that the next settled ministry will last for many mutually-enriching years.

In recent years, the UUA and the UU Ministers Association have been exploring the many aspects of "parish ministry" today. Here is some of what they have discerned in their "Excellence in Ministry" materials:

"Excellence in ministry is the capability and commitment of ministers, lay leaders and congregations to the increased health, vitality, and spiritual depth of our congregations and our tradition.

Tools for excellence in ministry include:

- preaching
- teaching
- pastoral care
- prophetic witness
- administration, and
- strong interpersonal skills

An excellent minister is able to:

- articulate and carry the vision
- lead cultural and institutional change
- deepen congregational life
- connect with the broader community in powerful ways
- nurture the beloved community
- encourage generosity
- reinforce healthy patterns and practices, and
- reinvent one's ministry in response to changing congregational need and context."

Yet your Search Committee is not simply checking off boxes on a grid. They are searching for the more elusive qualities that will make for a companionable fit between that minister as a person, and all of you. As a seven-person team, your Search Committee has the collective knowledge and experience of your congregation to discern such a fit in all its intricacies. And that is something that no one person can do as well. The date on which search committees get to make an offer to a minister, inviting them to be their chosen Candidate is March 30th. May we await the news from that day with high hopes, confidence, and faith in David, Ann, Rebecca, Buzzie, Brian, Rod, and Linda, and faith in this time-tested good process.

With care and cheer,

Rev. Jennie (“It’s a privilege to be here.”)

News and Notes

January 29, 2017

“Stand Up Sunday - Against Gun Violence” (Rev. Jennie preaching) Congregations across South Carolina will stand together this morning to address the moral and public-health crisis of gun violence and take steps to reduce it that don’t threaten the Second Amendment right to lawfully own guns. Last year over 1,000 congregations participated. We are proud to be part of this advocacy which is sorely needed in our state and our nation.

February 12, 2017

“Common Ground Between Religion and Science?” (Rev. Jennie preaching) Inspired by the writing of physicist Richard Feynman, this sermon will explore ways science and religion do not have to be in conflict. This service is part of Evolution Weekend, sponsored by the Clergy Letter Project. Each year in February, clergy and congregations take part in Evolution Weekend by advocating for the protection of high quality science education and religious freedom, through worship services and other events.

February 19, 2017

“Kick-off and Celebration of our Annual Pledge Drive” (Rev. Jennie preaching)

Capital Campaign Update

We now have over $194,000 in pledges for our building renovations. The board is planning the financing, and we have a Committee on Building Renovations to supervise the projects. We're on our way toward new bathrooms, a well-lit RE wing with decent floors, new ceilings in the social hall/sanctuary, and a sanctuary you won't recognize!

But other than raising as much money as possible, the essence of a successful capital campaign is engagement by the entire congregation. No gift is too small because it shows you care! Just fill out a pledge card (behind the sanctuary seats), or mail a check to the UUCC with "Capital Campaign" in the memo line, or send an email stating your pledge to our Administrator at uucc@uucolumbia.org.

The Campaign will officially end on January 31, so whether you do it now or later, please don't forget us! We've made so many improvements to our "fixer-upper" over the past thirty years. Help us make it into a place we're proud to show people.

Search Committee Update

People are curious to know where we are in the process of finding a new minister for our congregation. The information we collected from UUCC during the fall was sent to the UUA in Boston and was made available to potential ministers. Thirteen expressed interest in our congregation by sending us their Ministerial Record. We reviewed these carefully and decided to follow up with five of these with an interview via video conferencing. Then we decided to interview in person three of these. These candidates have been invited to a "pre-candidating" weekend so that we can meet them in person and assess whether they would be a good fit for our congregation. At this point the names are confidential so we can't reveal much more than this. On Thursday, March 30, we can extend an offer to our preferred candidate. We believe that UUCC is a highly desirable congregation and are seeking skilled candidates.

Pledge & Capital Campaign Statements Mailed

Statements of your pledge status as of the end of the second quarter of the congregation's fiscal year, and of your contributions during calendar 2016 for tax purposes, were mailed on Friday, January 13. The statements include your Pledges and payments toward our Capital Campaign. Some people will receive only the calendar year statement. If you have not received your statement and believe you should have, please contact our Administrator, Andrea Dudick, at 799-0845 or uucc@uucolumbia.org. Thanks for your contributions to our congregation. Joe Long, for the finance committee.

Adult Choir Schedule

We will rehearse and sing on Sunday, January 29, at 9:30 a.m. in the sanctuary and every two weeks after. Bill Moody, Director

CANstruction Donations Due SUNDAY

Please leave your cans for Harvest Hope in the red tub in the Social Hall. The cans will be distributed to classrooms for use in their January 29 CANstruction projects. To encourage fun competition between the classrooms we need all the cans we can get. Not only will your canned goods provide much needed food sources for those in need, it will provide an avenue of learning and fun for our students. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Operation Bed-Roll

Our CYRE Youth Group (middle and high schoolers) will be collaborating with the Midlands Collaboration on Operation Bed-Roll. In the meantime, Please Donate Plastic Bags to our CYRE. Place them in the green collection tub in the Social Hall. We are also in need of G size crochet hooks and folks who crochet! Your instruction will be invaluable and a life-time gift to our children and youth.

Adult RE Short Course: God Is Not One, Beginning February 12

This spring, a short course at UUCC will be devoted to the eight most broadly practiced world religions (Islam, Christianity, Buddhism, Judaism, Confucianism, Yoruba religion, Daoism, Hinduism, and Atheism). It will be based on the book God is Not One by Stephen Prothero (2010). This book is the successor to Prothero's best-seller Religious Literacy, which emphasizes the importance of a broad acquaintance with the world's religions in a modern America in which there are more Moslems than Episcopalians. The book provides a valuable background for UUCC's greeters, Membership activists who help integrate new friends and members to the congregation, and in general for members of the committees and board of UUCC. The book is inexpensively available from such sources as Amazon and addall.com. The short course will meet from 1:00-2:30 p.m. Sundays in the Library. It will meet in six sessions, first on February 12, and continuing on alternate Sundays, with accommodations for other congregational activities as necessary. The instructor will be Don Cooper. Don's e-mail is dndcooper@gmail.com, with mobile phone (803) 466-5087. If you are interested in participating in this short course, please contact him before the end of January, preferably by e-mail.

UUCC Governance and Structure Ad Hoc Committee

In June 2016 the UUCC Board established an ad hoc committee, UUCC Governance and Structure, to review, analyze, and recommend revisions to our UUCC governance structure, ensuring a clearer picture of who we are as an organization. We have been meeting regularly since June and sending monthly reports to the Board as well as to the other committee chairs in our congregation.

The UUCC Governance and Structure Ad Hoc Committee would like to know what questions, concerns or suggestions our members might have about how UUCC operates. Do you have ideas about governance that you would like to share? Has your experience in other congregations or faith communities given you some insight into governance that you feel might benefit UUCC? Do you have concerns or questions and are not sure where or how to share those concerns or ask those questions? We want to hear from you, our members. Please direct your comments, questions, concerns, or suggestions to our Chair, Keitha Whitaker, at uukeitha@gmail.com.

UUA Southern Region Chalice Lighters Call

Dear Chalice Lighters and Friends of the Southern Region,

We're pleased to announce the first region-wide Chalice Lighters call! This call will support extending the Pledge to End Racism program from First UU Church of Richmond to all interested congregations in the Southern Region. This program is designed using a leadership development model so participants gain skills and develop competence in not only talking about racism, but in facilitating discussions about race, and then working together to organize Living the Pledge workshops for people throughout their community. Instead of just talking about racism, this program develops knowledgeable, passionate leaders who can do something to address it. The Pledge strengthens local antiracism efforts, brings congregations together with other faith communities with like commitments, and creates teams of people involved on the local level in making change in their own communities.

With generous donations from Southern Region Chalice Lighters and friends, the Pledge to End Racism organizers will be available to provide, at minimal cost, curriculum and consultation to fifty (50) or more congregations in organizing the Pledge to End Racism programs for their communities. This will include all the materials to develop Living the Pledge to End Racism workshops, select and train small group facilitators, and promote the program in your congregation and to your larger community - all with the goal of building a community-wide movement to end racism.

By spreading the Pledge to End Racism program throughout the South, Unitarian Universalist congregations can have a recognizable impact on the rise in racial tensions and division and can play an essential part in building stronger communities imbued with justice, equity, and compassion.

UUCC Board of Trustees

Summary of November 16, 2016 Meeting

The Board of Trustees met November 16, 2016 from 6:30 to 8:10 PM.

Treasurer's Report

Income is up in almost every category while Capital Campaign payments continue to increase. At the end of the first 1/3 of our fiscal year we have a positive variance of $15,186.81. In comparison, last year at this point we had a negative variance of $6,071.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Website Policies

The Board approved a Website Privacy Policy and Terms and Conditions of Use of the Website document.

Coffee House

There was some discussion about how to handle the Coffee House checking account. It was agreed that Bob Whitaker can close the account and give Steve Fisher a cashier's check for the balance of the account. They have concerts scheduled through February 18, 2017. Donald Griggs will work with David Roof to be sure we have an inventory of the equipment.

Building Renovation

Richard Culler reported that he hopes to convene the Committee for Building Renovation early in December. Phil Turner and Rev. Jennie will be serving as ex officio members of the committee. Phil, Richard, and Quillin Davis met with Peck Drennan to discuss the potential timeline and his contract as the architect. The Finance Committee has been asked to research options for "bridge financing", ways to finance the work in advance of receiving all the money that has been pledged. Bob Whitaker will meet with BB&T personnel to get an estimate of the cost of borrowing money for the renovations.

Tree of Life Historical Marker

Plans are underway to place a historical marker on our grounds to honor the history of the Tree of Life Congregation. There will be a ceremony with the installation and dedication of the marker on December 11, 2016 at 2:00 PM.

Ministerial Search Committee

The Search Committee has requested the Board's approval of the contract they will use in negotiating with a settled minister. They need to submit the document on November 23. It is being circulated to the Board today. An electronic vote will take place after the Trustees have an opportunity to review the contract.

The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

Grateful for the religious pluralism that enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. We covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relationships
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and society at large
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all
7. Respect for the interdependent web of existence of which we are a part

If these principles reflect your understanding of the world and appeal to your sense of spiritual fulfillment, we invite you to consider membership in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia. If you would like to discuss membership or if you would simply like more information, please speak to any member of the Membership Committee or of the Board of Trustees.
