Message From Our Minister

The Hebrew Scriptures records the story of Joseph, in the book of Genesis. In summary, Joseph was sold into slavery by his brothers in a fit of jealous rage. They had originally planned to kill him and opted for selling him into slavery instead, at the intervention of one of his brothers. From there, we follow Joseph’s life as he moves from place to place, not as a free man, but as one whose fate is determined by the different people who believe they own him. He ends up in the house of Pharaoh and shares an interpretation of a dream of Pharaoh’s that ends up helping Egypt survive a severe famine and economic crisis. The famine is so severe that Joseph’s brothers travel to Egypt in search of help, only to find themselves face to face, begging for help, from this brother they had abused and betrayed.

There’s a line in that story that Joseph speaks, which does not excuse their behavior, overlook the pain of the tragic events of his life, or gloss over the evil act of being sold as a slave. However, it does show the potential for a transformative experience of a horrific situation. Joseph says, “what you intended for evil, your intent to harm me, has now been transformed into good, and will contribute to the well being of all.” (This is my interpretation and paraphrasing)

Continued...

The United States will forever have the stain of the evil of slavery in our history. This is something we can never forget or believe that it has been resolved. We built our economy on the horrific kidnapping, and buying and selling of fellow human beings, in the misguided and corrupt thinking of “owning” persons. This practice created a toxic way of seeing persons of color as inferior, and the events of the past year have been a clear reminder of this corrupt fire that still smolders in our culture.

February is African American History month. This month gives us an opportunity to recognize and celebrate the statement of Joseph lived out in the lives of so many, “what you intended for evil has been transformed into something good, and will contribute to the well being of all.” This month points us to the resiliency of African Americans in our country to overcome, create, invent, intervene, and lead to make this nation as great as we can be. May we all take time each day in February, to honor and remember.

UUCC Financial Update

February 2021

The outpouring of financial support we have seen over the past several months is a testament to the love that this congregation has in their hearts. Those who have been able to go above and beyond are definitely our heroes, but so are each and every one of us who continue to stand by our pledges each month.

That being said, we are doing amazingly well given the circumstances. Many of you know that the main HVAC unit needs to be replaced and part of the roof needs to be repaired. That is happening now with the funds we have. We are working to establish a line of credit for any unforeseen issues that might come up, but at the moment we are holding our own even with these HVAC and roof expenses.

Not only are we holding our own as a congregation, we are continuing to support our Share the Plate recipients. Our amazing administrator and bookkeeper work very hard to make sure that all financial operations go smoothly. We can help them by making sure that any donations to Share the Plate are received by the office a week prior to the end of the month. There is a lag time in the processing of on-line payments, so please get your donation in 'on time' by sending checks and automated bank payments by the 24th of each month.

Jeanette Walton, Treasurer

February Share the Plate Recipient: SC Appleseed Legal Justice Center

Half of our cash collection this month goes to the SC Appleseed Legal Justice Center, which fights for low-income South Carolinians to overcome social, economic, and legal injustice. Their goal is to influence policy-makers to ensure the law is fair, to educate the public and their advocates about the law, and to assist attorneys in bringing systemic litigation where the law is unfair. Sue Berkowitz will be their representative on February 28th.

If sending a check please write “Share the Plate” in the memo line or you can give by either going to our website, uucolumbia.org, and clicking on the ‘donate’ bar at the top of the page, or entering “abundant.co/uucc/give” in your browser. Please be sure to select “Share the Plate.”

You Can Donate Virtual Flowers for Sunday Service

Would you like a floral display to remember an upcoming birthday, anniversary, or a special memory? Sunday flowers are now possible during the pandemic. A beautiful virtual floral arrangement will fill the screen and a tribute will be read honoring the person or occasion. If you would like to send a picture of the person you are honoring, we will display it along with the flowers. If you have flowers growing in your yard to use for the floral picture, please include it. Send an email request with a brief paragraph (50 words or less) of what you would like read and the Sunday date you would like recognized to Linda McLeod (kitchen@uucolumbia.org). She will get back with you with further instructions about payment of the $30 donation. Your contribution to the flower fund will be moved to Share the Plate at the end of the month.

UCC Accepts Contributions Electronically

Please note that your online contributions are not posted to the UCC account until the second business day after you make them. You may give by either going to our website, uucolumbia.org, and clicking on the ‘donate’ bar at the top of the page, or entering “abundant.co/uucc/give” in your browser.

If you should have any questions or need help, please contact our Administrator, Andrea Dudick, at uucc@uucolumbia.org or 803-799-0845, between the hours of 6am-Noon, Monday-Friday. Thank you for your generosity.

Thank You

Homeless No More

Dear Friends, thank you for your gift of $1,146 as part of your December 2020 Share the Plate offering. Because of your support, our families have a safe place to call home. You are helping ensure our families and children are taken care of during the COVID-19 crisis. Your kindness helps our families stay together as they work towards stable employment, housing, and health. We could not do this without you. With gratitude,
Lila Anna Sauls, President/CEO

UUCC Zoom Access Information "Meeting Info"

The access information for UUCC meetings delivered via the UUCC Zoom accounts can now be found on the UUCC website for Thursday-Wednesday of each week. To access this information:

Go to www.uucolumbia.org

Select the "News" tab dropdown menu and then "Meeting Info"

Password is "community" without the quotation marks

Please read the notes at the bottom of the listing. Meetings hosted on non-UUCC Zoom accounts may not be listed.

Scheduling UUCC Zoom Meetings Delivered via UUCC Zoom Account

While the pandemic is preventing us from being physically together, we can still come together to enhance connections and further our spiritual growth, as well as conduct the business of our congregation.

The UUCC has obtained two Zoom licenses for congregational use. The following are the steps to schedule a UUCC Zoom meeting using these:

Check the UUCC calendar at <http://www.uucolumbia.dreamhosters.com/news/calendar/> to determine availability for a date/time. NOTE: Two meetings can be held simultaneously (Z1 and Z2). You can schedule a recurring meeting, e.g., every Thursday 4-5 p.m., but make sure all these slots are available throughout the time period.

Contact Andrea Dudick by email at uucc@uucolumbia.org to confirm date/time slot availability.

You will be contacted via email by a UUCC Zoom Host with access information. The host will work with you to determine the assistance you might require in hosting your Zoom meeting.

The host will start the meeting and stay on as needed or leave the meeting making you or a designee the host.

NOTE: Use of the Zoom accounts follows the established policy on building usage, i.e., the use must originate from a UUCC committee or be approved by the Board and the event must be placed on the official UUCC calendar by our Administrator, Andrea Dudick (uucc@uucolumbia.org).

Social Action

Virtual Social Action Committee Meeting, Sunday, February 28, 1:00pm

If you would like login info, please contact socialaction@uucolumbia.org. Hope to see you all then!

Please Donate to the Transitions Winter Shelter

The Social Action Committee is again soliciting donations of lightly used clothing (especially hats, gloves and coats), current magazines and unused personal-sized toiletries for the Inclement Weather Center, known as the “winter shelter” for the city’s adult homeless. The city funded shelter, managed by Transitions, is open from November 1 to April 1 when the temperature falls below 40F. So far this season it has already been open several times, serving about 50 client per night and that number will grow to over 100 as winter arrives. Transitions is doing its best to protect clients, staff and volunteers from COVID19 and does not want to halt serving this population in need.

Once you have accumulated enough items to warrant a pick-up, Tom Clements (tomclements329@cs.com, cell 803-240-7268) will pick up in Columbia and Laura Hartwig (publicity@uucolumbia.org 914-482-2899) will pick up in Lexington County. If you live further out, then Tom, who lives near downtown, could arrange to meet on your trip into the city. Thanks everyone!

Feeding the Hungry at Transitions

Transitions continues to need volunteers to serve meals and other opportunities. Because of social distancing, they request that you sign up for a shift rather than show up. Contact Transitions at 803-708-4861 or click HERE to find out more about volunteering and support opportunities.

Harvest Hope Food Bank Volunteers Needed

As always, please make sure to take your own safety into consideration first before volunteering. You can sign up for all volunteer shifts here.

If you have a special need or know of someone who does, please email caringchair@uucolumbia.org or call (or text to) 803-605-8625.

If you would like to help the Caring Network on an occasional or as needed and available basis, please email caringchair@uucolumbia.org.

*Please note that during this time of sheltering in place to prevent further spread of Covid-19 some activities of the Caring Network may be suspended. Visits, rides to medical appointments, shopping – all will be determined on a case by case basis with the safety of Caring Committee members and all members and friends of the congregation our primary concern. We are often able to help members and friends find community resources to fill the gaps in the services we usually provide in person. Moral support and a listening ear are always available.

- Testimonial Videos about work congregations are doing.
- Uprooting White Supremacy inherent in Covenant Building
- Covenant, Evil and Labor: A Preface of Welcome for Young Folks of Color
- Congregational paths to address both Climate Crisis and Systemic Oppression
- Staying the Course - Navigating Pushback, Fatigue, and Reactivity in Dismantling White Supremacy
- There's an Elephant in the Room: How to Have Difficult Conversations in Church
- The 8th Principle with Paula Cole Jones.
- Foundations of Community Building with Shannon Harper.
- The Congregation of Our Dreams with Janice Marie Johnson.

Learn more and register at <https://www.uua.org/leadership/events/new-day-rising-2021> here.

General Assembly is the annual gathering of Unitarian Universalists, where we conduct business of the Association, explore the theological underpinnings of our faith, and lean fully into our mission and principles. That remains true even when we cannot gather physically. Last year, over 4,900 registered attendees participated from around the world. Although we give up the face-to-face interaction and hugs that are prevalent when we meet in-person, we retain our dedication to community and make our experience more accessible and more environmentally sustainable. Those of us who have attended GA's in person over the years know that they are an exhilarating and fun experience. Virtual can be too, with the added benefit of being able to drink coffee, eat snacks, and take quick breaks without walking 500 yards down the convention hallway!

Registration opened December 1st. To register, go to <https://www.uua.org/ga/registration>. Virtual GA 2021 is $200 per person. Financial aid as well as a payment plan are available. GA registrants will receive access to the 2021 Online Participation Portal, including live, simulive (look this new word up!), and on-demand video content, the virtual exhibit hall, chat features, support, and a (new!) GA mobile app.

Benefits of Early Registration An accurate attendee count for this event will help UUA in all planning for the event, in recruiting, onboarding, and training volunteer teams. Help us serve our community by registering early. If need be, make a deposit using the payment plan. It's one way to let UUA know you plan to attend even as you take more time to prepare due to the pandemic, political climate, and/or personal concerns.

Southern Region Toolbox Webinars

Our Southern Region Toolbox Webinars are compact and efficient training sessions offered monthly. They are designed to support congregations and their leaders. Webinars are offered live, and recordings of the sessions are sent to all participants who register beforehand. (So if you have a schedule conflict you can register and still get the recording to view later!) Learn more and register at <https://uua.wufoo.com/forms/z1kfa6r40qhfefm/>

Upcoming Sessions (Second Tuesday of each month at 7:00 PM ET):

- March 9 – Safe Congregations Policies and Resources
- April 13 – Pastoral Care and Chaplaincy Resources

You're also encouraged to check the Denominational Connections pages at UUCC's website: (<http://www.uucolumbia.dreamhosters.com/connection/denominational-connection/>) for updates and connect with our wider UU world. The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

Grateful for the religious pluralism that enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. We covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relationships
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and society at large
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all
7. Respect for the interdependent web of existence of which we are a part

If these principles reflect your understanding of the world and appeal to your sense of spiritual fulfillment, we invite you to consider membership in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia. If you would like to discuss membership or if you would simply like more information, please speak to any member of the Membership Committee or of the Board of Trustees.
