Message From Our Minister

As we celebrate this time of renewal and ingathering, the beginning of a church year, Rosh Hashanah, we long to put a difficult year behind us. We find ourselves still battling a virus and pandemic that is taking both lives and ways of life. Our church services continue to be a hybrid experience, with some of our members, friends, and guests gathering in person. We also provide a livestream and virtual call for our members, friends, and guests, who are making choices to not attend in person events. At the UUCC, our worship experience centers on including all, and creating a season of renewal for everyone.

I have shifted my hopes away from getting life “back to normal,” whatever that means, and focusing my energy on creating times of growth, enlightenment, and renewal, in the midst of and often in despite of our circumstances. Marge Piercy’s poem, “The Head of the Year,” sounds so relevant in 2021, as she invites us to “forgive the dead year” and find the “light that hides in our bellies.”

As we continue to endure and navigate a global pandemic, we can’t afford to lose sight of the work that calls us at the UUCC. We must work to renew our commitment to be our best selves, as we work to transform our world around us. May we nurture the light in our bellies, and let the transforming light of our chalice burn brightly.

The Head of the Year

by Marge Piercy

The moon is dark tonight, a new moon for a new year. It is hollow and hungers to be full.
It is the black zero of beginning.

Now you must void yourself of injuries, insults, incursions.
Go with empty hands to those you have hurt and make amends.

It is not too late. It is early and about to grow. Now is the time to do what you know you must and have feared to begin. Your face is dark too as you turn inward to face yourself, the hidden twin of all you must grow to be.

Forgive the dead year. Forgive yourself. What will be wants to push through your fingers.
The light you seek hides in your belly. The light you crave longs to stream from your eyes. You are the moon that will wax in new goodness.

(Piercy, Marge. "The Head of the Year". The Art of Blessing the Day. Knopf; Reprint edition, 2000)

Membership Matters

Hi Folks! Would you like to know what membership is all about? Membership involves sharing your philosophy, listening to the perspectives of others, and building a supportive community together. Membership means making a commitment to this Congregation and agreeing to be in a relationship of giving and receiving. Membership offers a place to join in with others to do good works in the larger community. Membership results in lifelong learning, connections, and friendships.

Membership is open to those 18 years of age or older. If you'd like to know more about membership at UUCC, talk with any member of the Membership Committee on any Sunday or email membership@uucolumbia.org. We're easy to find. Look for the red "Ask Me" ribbons on our nametags. Please look me up on Sunday mornings after the service so we can become better acquainted. You may also email me any time at membership@uucolumbia.org.

Adult Religious Education

Adult RE Classes: Kything: An Ancient Practice of Celtic Christianity Thursday Nights in September, 7-8pm

Rebecca Drennan will be presenting September Zoom sessions on this ancient practice, asking ourselves, "How can we apply this to our present lives?" The practice of contemplative prayer and meditation spreads across time and all cultures and traditions. One might be far from religious practice, yet have a sense of the sacredness in ordinary life. These five sessions will focus on our awareness of the presence of God in ourselves, in others, and in all of creation.

We will meet the five Thursday evenings in September at 7pm ET on Zoom. We'll focus on some pertinent material and then process the material in breakouts, practice deep listening. Come prepared to offer your wisdom and compassion. To register call, text, or email Rebecca Drennan at 415-377-1791 or rebecca@creativetransformation.com.

Blessing of the Animals, October 17, 3pm

Bring all your furry and feathered friends to UUCC for a special service and blessing by Rev. Stephen Robinson. The Blessing will be held outside on the Heyward St. side of our grounds. Due to the pandemic, we will not be serving snacks or drinks for humans. We will, however, have bowls of water for pets who get thirsty. Don't forget a mask for yourself and a leash or crate for your pet.

Patio Door Locks Have Changed

To allow easier locking and unlocking of the patio doors we have installed deadbolt locks on one side of each set of the double doors. This means that only one side of each set will open. To lock the doors, engage the dead bolt lock on each set of doors. To unlock these two doors when inside, turn the deadbolts and open the doors. We hope you will find this a simple solution to the difficulty so many of us have had to deal with in locking and unlocking the patio doors. Any questions should be directed to bandgchair@uucolumbia.org.

September Share the Plate Recipient

Half of our cash collection in September goes to Harriet Hancock LGBT Services, which is the hub of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender activity in the Midlands of South Carolina. The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

Grateful for the religious pluralism that enriches and ennobles our faith, we are inspired to deepen our understanding and expand our vision. We covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relationships
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and society at large
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all
7. Respect for the interdependent web of existence of which we are a part

If these principles reflect your understanding of the world and appeal to your sense of spiritual fulfillment, we invite you to consider membership in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Columbia. If you would like to discuss membership or if you would simply like more information, please speak to any member of the Membership Committee or of the Board of Trustees.
